Barlow's Indigo Blue

THE TRIED AND TRUE
WASH BLUE OF AMERICA

IT IS over fifty years since this article was discovered and introduced to the public for blueing clothes. Many attempts have been made to imitate it, but none have succeeded to equal it in quality. It is the purest and strongest, will not spot or streak the clothes, nor injure the finest fabric. Few articles have the endorsement of the public for half a century unless the quality merits it. This endorsement Barlow's Indigo Blue has well earned, making it the standard blueing throughout the country.

Trade mark is registered and we caution the trade against handling goods imitating style and appearance.

FOREWORD

The ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK of the Reformed Church in the United States, which is annually welcomed in more homes of the denomination than any other permanent publication, has for many years sought to provide in the briefest possible form an account of the events, personalities, and statistical information of most value to Reformed Church families. In the present volume we endeavor to provide a helpful résumé of the most significant occurrences in our denominational life during the year 1921. Each year brings its peculiar problems, and has in it some causes for discouragement, but more reasons for renewed courage and assurance. During 1921, America has experienced wide-spread industrial depression, with resulting unemployment of millions, and increasing evidences in many quarters of lamentable "crime waves" which menaced the social welfare. This has to some extent affected the work of the Church, and especially made more difficult such an exalted spiritual enterprise as our Forward Movement, with its challenges to evangelism and social service, as well as its appeals for ever-enlarging benevolence. In spite of untoward conditions, however, our pastors and people have manifested a notably heroic temper, and we have much reason to believe that the work of the Lord among us has made steady and symmetrical progress. Although our growth in Church membership has not been phenomenal, and many complaints about irregular Church attendance persist, it must be noted that our Sunday Schools are recovering in a gratifying degree from the inroads upon attendance and interest during and immediately following the World War. Indeed, it seems to us that in this ALMANAC AND YEAR BOOK the emphasis should be laid upon Religious Education, because the predominating tendency of the year has been to place greater stress upon this fundamental obligation, and our people are beginning to be gripped by the determination to do our full share in removing from the land the blighting curse of spiritual illiteracy. The surveys made during these recent years have revealed the alarming situation in America in the matter of an untrained generation. It is a sin and shame that millions of youth should be permitted to grow up without proper moral and spiritual training in a Republic like ours. And we are also beginning to understand that the Protestant Church has paid too small a share of its attention to "the lambs of the flock," and must amend her ways before it is too late.

Very gratifying has been the growth of Daily Vacation Bible Schools among our people. Pastors and Consistories have sensed the greatness of the opportunity thus provided in impressing spiritual truths upon the children of the community, during at least a portion of the summer months; and a new appreciation of the value of the Church has come to many parents by reason of these ministries of love. This work will doubtless be greatly extended in future years. Even more important is the development of the idea of Week-day Religious Education, so that Protestantism can take advantage of the growing conviction in the minds of thoughtful Americans, that the future of the nation demands more attention to the development of the character and the strengthening of the moral and religious sanctions of the children. The Reformed Church must plan to be prepared for such week-day hours as may be vouchsafed, using them wisely as in the sight of God. And until Week-day Religious Instruction becomes more fully established, there is very much to be done to improve the quality of the work done on Sunday, to make better use of our golden opportunities in influencing the childhood of the Church, and to work together on the task of spiritualizing the homes of our people. Let us face fearlessly and lovingly the great work of religious education, and strive to achieve a genuine educational religion.

Great have been the losses of the year among beloved leaders and devoted members of the Church; severe have been the trials through which some of our people have been called to pass; but in ten thousand ways our Lord has blessed us, and the Reformed Church has responded to His calls of love. Generous giving for the apportionment, for the Orphans' Homes and other eleemosynary institutions, as well as for relief causes at home and across the seas, have made 1921 a remarkable year, when the business situation of the country is remembered. In China and Japan, in Armenia and Russia and the lands of Europe, there are many hearts blessed by our offerings. Never did our Church respond more freely. More than a million dollars paid in the Forward Movement is for us an unparalleled achievement. But what has been done dare only spur us on to larger ministries and more Christ-like sacrifices.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT IN 1922

A Promising Program for our Church in this Epoch Making Movement

At the beginning of the year 1922 the Reformed Church finds herself at the middle point of the five-year period assigned for the Forward Movement. As we progress from year to year the significance of this Movement becomes greater and greater. In it thousands of Church members and hundreds of congregations are rediscovering themselves in relation to Christ and his Kingdom. This is coming about partly as a result of the study of our Spiritual Resources, the re-reading of the Bible, the better understanding of prayer and the more intelligent practice of intercession.

It is being achieved also by the frank facing of our individual responsibility as stewards of the Lord. This age-old Christian principle is again coming to the front in the present day interpretations of the Kingdom. It lies at the very heart of Christian teaching with reference to Social Service and presents the only safe position with reference to possessions and life work. Its practical application in proportionate and systematic giving is happily rendering less uncertain the maintenance and extension of the missionary, institutional and other philanthropic work of the Church.

Furthermore, through widely extended publicity and education, the rank and file of the Church are coming to have a much more intimate knowledge of the real objectives of our present day Christian effort—the great missionary enterprises at home and abroad, the causes of Religious Education, Christian Schools and Colleges, and Ministerial Relief and Sustentation. Through the Forward Movement departments of Spiritual Resources, Stewardship and Life Service, and Education and Publicity respectively, these vital elements of our Church life have been greatly advanced during the last two and a half years.

All three departments have been magnificently supported by the fourth department in the Forward Movement organization—that of Field Work. Through great chains of conventions, conferences, mass meetings and retreats, the Field Work department has brought the membership of the Church to school in every locality throughout the denomination, thus greatly facilitating the spread of ideas, comradeship in Christian work and united effort in the accomplishment of our denominational program.

The Financial Campaign

A secondary, but no less effective factor in advancing our denominational efficiency is the Financial Campaign begun in the spring of 1920 and continuing with ever increasing appeal as the months pass. Practically every benevolent cause in the Church had suffered from lack of adequate support during the period of the Great War and in order that these deficiencies might be made up and more adequate means provided with which to meet the greater need occasioned by the distress of war, the Church made a careful survey of resources and needs. The minimum sum with which the latter might be met for the present was found to be $10,847,425.00. This then was made the amount of the Forward Movement Budget. After a study of the resources and giving capacity of each congregation as revealed in its past benevolent activities, this large sum was allotted in quotas to the congregations of the Church to be raised as promptly as possible. There has followed the most wonderful instance of denomination-wide co-operative action ever entered into by the Reformed Church in all its long history.

The aggregate of subscriptions at the time of this writing (August 15, 1921) cannot be given, as additions to the amount are being constantly made. On June 30, 1921, there were reported at Headquarters, subscriptions totaling $6,398,797.90. The accounts of the Forward Movement were audited as of that date by a committee consisting of three laymen of the Reformed Church, David A. Miller, retired newspaper publisher, Allentown, Pa.; John L. Gerber, president of the Home Furniture Co., York, Pa., and Milton Warner, treasurer of General Synod, Philadelphia, Pa. This committee had the services of R. J. Bennett, Certified Public Accountant.

Exhibit G of the Auditor's Report, presents the following summary of Receipts and Expenditures of the Forward Movement from April 2, 1919 to June 30, 1921:

	————— $1,151,737 76

The contributions on August 1, 1921, had increased to $1,204,353.24. It will be seen that all preliminary expenses of the Movement, including the underwritings of the Inter-Church World Movement, have been met, and that all receipts from now forth except the relatively small amount needed for running expenses and further campaigns, will go directly to the benevolent causes.

The cost of financing the Forward Movement itself, including the underwritings of the Inter-Church World Movement, has been 3.75% of the Budget. To complete the latter may require an outlay of 5% or more. Business corporations frequently appropriate as much as 15% or 20% of the total capital for promotion purposes. Thus it will be seen that the Church is commendably frugal in its management of this great enterprise.

A Greatly Strengthened Church

Our Church should feel greatly heartened as we turn now to the second half of the five-year period of the Forward Movement still before us. We are vastly better prepared to finish our task than we were to begin it. The achievements of the last two years and a half have given us assurances of our strength of which we could only dream before. Hundreds of our congregations have found within their folds dozens and scores of workers whose talents hitherto were unknown. In every local church where the Forward Movement programs have been carried out there is new life and energy. The consecration of means to the great objectives of the Forward Movement has enriched rather than impoverished the congregations which have thus participated. Salaries of pastors have been increased, local budgets have been expanded and contributions toward the regular apportionments have been more liberal by far than in the years before the Forward Movement. Here and there, the ability of the congregation as revealed in the ease and readiness with which the Forward Movement quota was met have led the people to undertake local improvements hitherto deemed impossible. In short, the Forward Movement has led the Reformed Church to rediscover herself especially in the matter of doing greater things for God. The Church as a denomination finds herself far in advance of the position she occupied only a few years ago.

Program for the New Year

However, we are far from our commonly accepted goal. There are hundreds of congregations yet to unite in this program of concerted action. The work of straightening out the front line of the Church is the task immediately before us. The plan of action for 1922 contemplates the accomplishment of this task. How shall it be done?

1. The morale of the whole Church is to be heightened by the further development, in all congregations, of the Spiritual Resources, inherent in the lives of the people. The Fellowship of Intercession is giving a new call to prayer. In this an effort is being made to reach every new member received into the Reformed Church between Easter, 1921 and Easter, 1922. The well directed movement in behalf of Family Religion conducted under the leadership of the Publication and Sunday School Board is given hearty support in the Forward Movement program. Bible reading in the home and in the church school is being taken up more widely. Evangelism is being made a year-round feature with a special program for ingathering of souls from January to Easter.

2. The conception of the Christian life in terms of Stewardship, the interpretation of the latter in the effort to solve our modern social problems, and successful application of the principles of Christian Stewardship in the individual life—stewardship in its wider and narrower meaning, in its general and particular application, is being made one of the central themes of preaching, and of study by the various organizations of the Church. In close relation to this is the problem of life-work for the young. The conferences held during the past year in our institutions of learning are being followed up, and an extension of the campaign to reach the boys and girls of our Church now in the high schools is a feature of this year's program.

3. No effort is to be spared in further educating the membership of the Church as to the objectives and methods of the Forward Movement. The call of humanity the world over under the distress of unchristian conditions must be sounded until sleeping Churches awake and enter into the joyous life of service along with their brethren throughout the whole denomination. In this work, the stereopticon and the moving picture are being given large use. In an entirely new series known as the "Challenge Series" of stereopticon lectures originated in our own Church and operated through the Forward Movement Bureau of Stereopticon Lectures, the activities of the Church at home and abroad are vividly portrayed against the background of the world's need. As far as it is physically possible, these lectures will be given in the Churches of every classis in which satisfactory arrangements can be made for their presentation.

4. Through the Field Work department important conferences of Forward Movement committeemen of classes and congregations are being conducted for the study of local problems in the completion of the program within the five-year period. This department includes in its plans for 1922 another and more complete chain of "Ministerial Retreats" in which the deepest things in pastoral experience may be sympathetically discussed by the ministers of our Church.

5. The Financial Campaign has moved the center of influence from headquarters up to the Classical Forward Movement Committee. Thus the directing agencies of the campaign are located closer to the front where difficulties in making canvasses can be studied more intimately and assistance can be rendered more effectually. By this plan, no congregation, however remote, small or unfortunate, need be denied the joy of successful participation in this wonderful coöperative effort in behalf of all our benevolent causes. The completion of the classical quota is now a local problem and under strong committees appointed in each classis especially for this task, quiet but thorough and effective work is being accomplished in many places. Of course, the Classical Committees are to have all possible help from headquarters. Under this plan, the year 1922 will doubtless see numerous classes, and possibly some synods, go "over the top" in the Forward Movement Financial Campaign.

Personnel

For the administration and promotion of all Forward Movement activities, the Commission has continued the Secretarial Staff as originally constituted, the Executive Secretary and the four departmental heads to serve on part time as during the past year. The Rev. Wm. F. DeLong, as Assistant Executive Secretary, is in charge at headquarters. Associated with him are J. Q. Truxal, Esq., Financial Secretary, and Clarence F. Greulich, Accountant. Rev. C. J. Musser, D.D., is giving all of his time in the Department of Education and Publicity. The field force of Regional Secretaries and synodical workers, with some modifications in organization but with little change in personnel, continues its service which grows in importance as the work of the Movement narrows down to more limited areas and particular fields. Besides this official personnel there are throughout the Church thousands of men, women and children who have helped in the Forward Movement and who stand ready to help further in the work yet before us.

GEORGE L. OMWAKE, *Secretary,
Dept. Education and Publicity.*

THE UNITED MISSIONARY AND STEWARDSHIP COMMITTEE

The first year following the meeting of the General Synod at Reading, the Church at large, through the Synods, Classes, and Congregations, adopted and largely put into operation the recommendations made by the General Synod. The entire Reformed Church seems now to be heartily supporting the plans and work of General Synod's Committee.

The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee was constituted by the General Synod in order to coördinate the work of the Boards of the Church, and to make a strong, united appeal to congregations and people in behalf of our missionary and benevolent work. Its duty is to make clear to the Church the necessity of providing adequate support for all of the regular work of the denomination, which means that part of the missionary and benevolent work which is supported from receipts on the Apportionment. The Church must eventually recognize that, at present at least, there is no way of paying the salaries of missionaries at home and abroad and maintaining the regular missionary work except through the Apportionment. The Committee is also charged by the General Synod with responsibility for promoting the principles and methods of Christian Stewardship. Just now this is being done in coöperation with that department of the Forward Movement. To do its work the Committee has wrought out some definite plans and methods and there must of course be a certain measure of organization. All of this work is of a permanent nature and the Committee has endeavored to create and maintain high standards.

The Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committees have been very active during the last year. On these Committees the real success of the work depends. There is a Committee in every Classis of the entire Church except in the most distant parts of Northwest Synod. These Classical Committees direct and encourage the work among the congregations of the Classes; they present reports and plans at the special meetings of the Classes; they arrange for exchanges of pulpits and visits of active laymen. Care must be used in future that Classes do not put too many duties upon the Classical Missionary and Stewardship Committee, and thus jeopardize the success of all the work entrusted to the Committee.

General Synod has its Committee and is actively at work with well defined duties; the Classes have their Missionary and Stewardship Committees and these Committees are most active and successful in their work every year; the Committees of the Classes of each District Synod are in several of the Synods bound together through a Synodical Committee; there are Missionary and Stewardship Committees in many of the congregations, and the number of these should be multiplied until there is a Committee in every congregation. In this way the missionary and stewardship work of the entire Reformed Church may be related and every member of the denomination can be reached. An active Congregational Missionary and Stewardship Committee is a very great help to the work in any congregation.

The methods advocated by the Committee,—the Every-Member Canvass, the Weekly Missionary Offering, and the use of the double envelope,—have been adopted by nearly all of the congregations of the Church. It is noteworthy that during the last two years a larger number of congregations in the German portion of the Church have made the Every-Member Canvass and adopted the Weekly Offering system than during the preceding eight years. Some congregations have become indifferent and have had to learn through experience that it is necessary that the Every-Member Canvass should be made annually and followed up carefully through the entire year.

Great increase has been made in the matter of the payment of the Apportionment. The Church during the last Classical year paid $200,000 on the Apportionment for Home Missions and the same amount for Foreign Missions, but this was only 77% of the whole Apportionment. With some additional effort on the part of all concerned, full 100% can be paid and should be paid this year.

When General Synod's Committee began some years ago to encourage congregations to reach the standard "As much for Others as for Ourselves," many persons thought that this was an almost impossible standard to reach. In 1914 there were only six such congregations, and in 1915 there were twenty-two. By 1918 the number had increased to 64, and in 1919 there were 121 congregations which gave "More for Others than Themselves." Complete statistics are not yet available but during the classical year which ended in May, 1921, there were more than 200 such Churches, and there were several whole Classes, the congregations of which had contributed more for Missions and Benevolence than for the congregational expenses. A congregation is not a field but a force, and there will be a richer and more spiritual Church when the time comes that practically all of our congregations and all of our Classes, and the denomination as a whole, contribute more for Missions and Benevolence than for the expenses of the congregations. The United Missionary and Stewardship Committee will keep this high standard before the Church and will do everything possible to help the Church realize it.

HOME MISSIONS

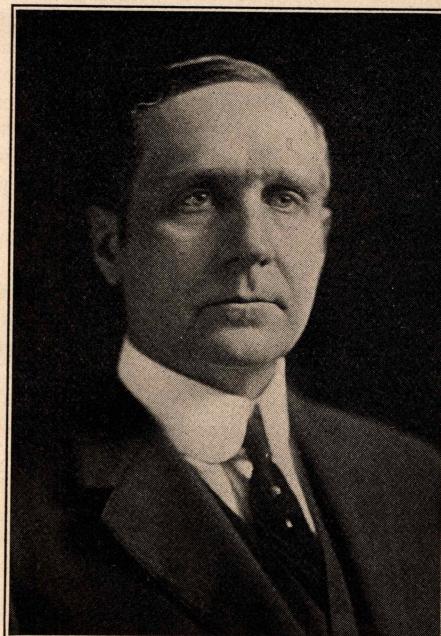

With the increasing importance of America among the nations of the world, the work of Home Missions assumes an increasing significance. This work is an effort on the part of the Church to build the Kingdom of God into the life of the nation. We have come to recognize that a nation's strength lies not in its natural and material resources, but in its men and women, in its ideals and principles, which mold its life and develop its character. The importance of the Church in the life of the nation has never been more pronounced than to-day.

The Board of Home Missions is a national body constituted by the General Synod and is aiding in the support of Mission Churches scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast, and from Canada to North Carolina. It likewise aids Missions in the erection of Church buildings and parsonages. For the sake of effectiveness, it has organized its work under varied Departments.

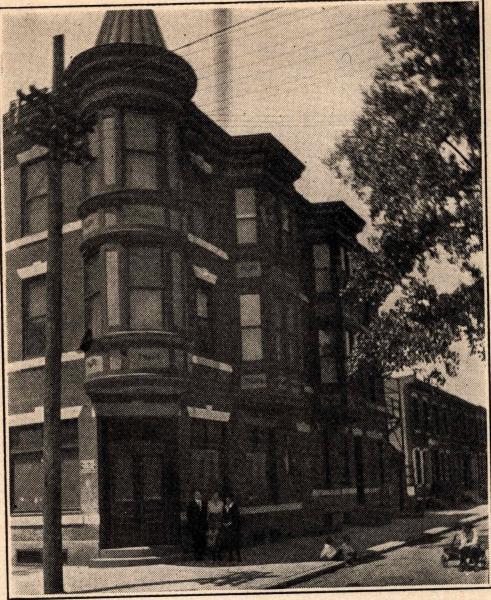

First.—The General Department, which provides support for the Missionaries, conducts the educational and publicity work, and includes the executive and field work of the Board. The money needed for this Department is supplied by the apportionment which the General Synod lays upon the Classes.

Second.—The Church-building Department. This looks after the erection of Church buildings and parsonages for the Missions. A large number of churches are now in process of construction. The money for this department is supplied through Church-building Funds. The Board, at present, controls 816 Church-building Funds, having gained 100 during the last year.

Third.—The Immigrant Department. This interests itself in Foreign speaking people in America. The Reformed Church is working among the following nationalities: Hungarian, Bohemian, Japanese, Italian, Jewish, Colored and Indian. The problem of Christian Americanization is acute. The Board has been supporting a Harbor Missionary in New York for many years. His headquarters are, at present, in the Hudson House, 107 E. 34th St., New York City, which property is owned by the Board of Home Missions, and is used by persons going to and coming from Europe.

Fourth.—The Department of the East. This includes the Missions in the Eastern, Potomac and Pittsburgh Synods. The work in this Department consists principally in looking after the welfare of the Missions within the bounds of these Synods. Many of them require careful oversight, and frequent counsel. Vacancies must be filled and problems and difficulties met and adjusted.

Fifth.—The Department of the West. This includes the territory covered by the Ohio Synod and the Synod of the Interior. The nature of this work is similar to that of the Department in the East. Its distances are great. Its Missions are widely scattered.

Sixth.—The Department of the Pacific Coast. A new department has recently been created by the Board, known as "The Department of the Pacific Coast" and the Rev. E. F. Evemeyer, of Easton, has been appointed Superintendent. This department embraces the Missionary work west of the Rocky Mountains, including, at present, our two Japanese Missions in San Francisco and in Los Angeles, also our English work in Los Angeles and our German work in California and Oregon.

The Board of Home Missions likewise conducts the work of Evangelism and of Social Service and Rural Church Work. These phases of Missionary effort are carried forward by Commissions of 15 members each, appointed by the Board. The Commission on Evangelism is also the Department of Spiritual Resources of the Forward Movement, and the Department of Social Service and Rural Church Work is in charge of Superintendent James M. Mullan.

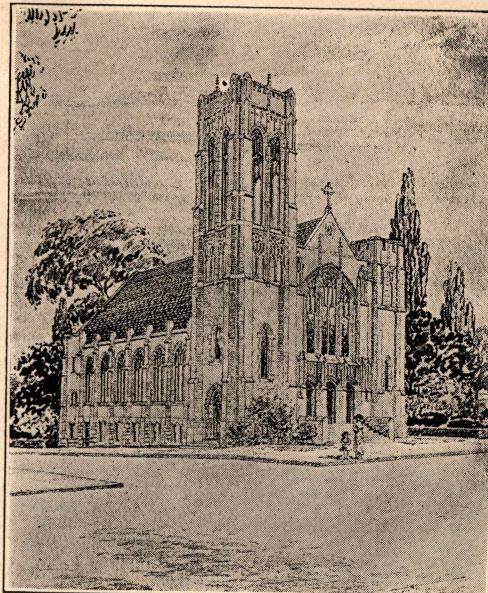

The Three German Synods, the Synod of the Northwest, the Synod of the Southwest and Central Synod have two Mission Boards, one known as the Board of Home Missions and the other as the Church Erection Board. These carry forward the work within the Boards of these Synods. A very flourishing and far-reaching work among the Indians at Black River Falls and at Neillsville, Wis., is done by the Boards of these three Synods.

Deaconesses and Social workers are employed in a number of our Missions. These are supported through our Board by the Woman's Missionary Society of General Synod. This Society has sole supervision and support of the Jewish work in Philadelphia.

Daily Vacation Bible Schools are conducted during the summer months in the majority of the Missions. The Publication and Sunday School Board is coöperating in the support of these Daily Vacation Bible School teachers.

Through the Forward Movement, the Board of Home Missions has been steadily receiving money for its Church-building Department. Its actual needs amount to $2,383,200. It is hoped that this amount will be supplied during the five-year period of the Forward Movement. Friends of the cause should remember this work in their wills, in the form of annuities, in gifts, and above all in their prayers and sympathies.

FOREIGN MISSIONS

Foreign Mission Day occurs, this year, on Sunday, February twelfth. Its observance is becoming more general every year. Pastors and Superintendents can be of special help in awakening genuine interest among all our members.

During the past year seven new missionaries were sent to our Missions in Japan and China. It costs fully $1,000 for the outfit and travel expenses for a missionary.

One of the most encouraging signs of progress in our Evangelistic work in Japan is the steady increase in the contributions of the Japanese Christians. As compared with the year before, the offerings grew from $6,604 to $9,817, or about 50%.

There are over 700 students in North Japan College and over 300 in the Miyagi Girls' School, or a total of over 1,000 young people in our two schools in Sendai, Japan. Many of these students are already pledged for direct Christian work.

In Japan there are about 1,000 Protestant missionaries for over 60,000,000 people, the great mass of whom have never heard any Gospel preaching. Only one in 275 of the population are Christians as compared to one in three in the United States.

There are fully 2,000 less missionaries on the foreign fields to-day than before the great war. Everywhere the appeal is: "Give us the men and women and give us the equipment." All over this world of ours is written the word NEED. The call for more workers has never been so loud and urgent. Who will heed it?

Among the 400,000,000 of Chinese there are less than 4,000 Protestant missionaries. There is one Christian worker to about every 100,000 souls. In the Province of Hunan, where our Mission is located, there is one missionary for every 125,000 souls.

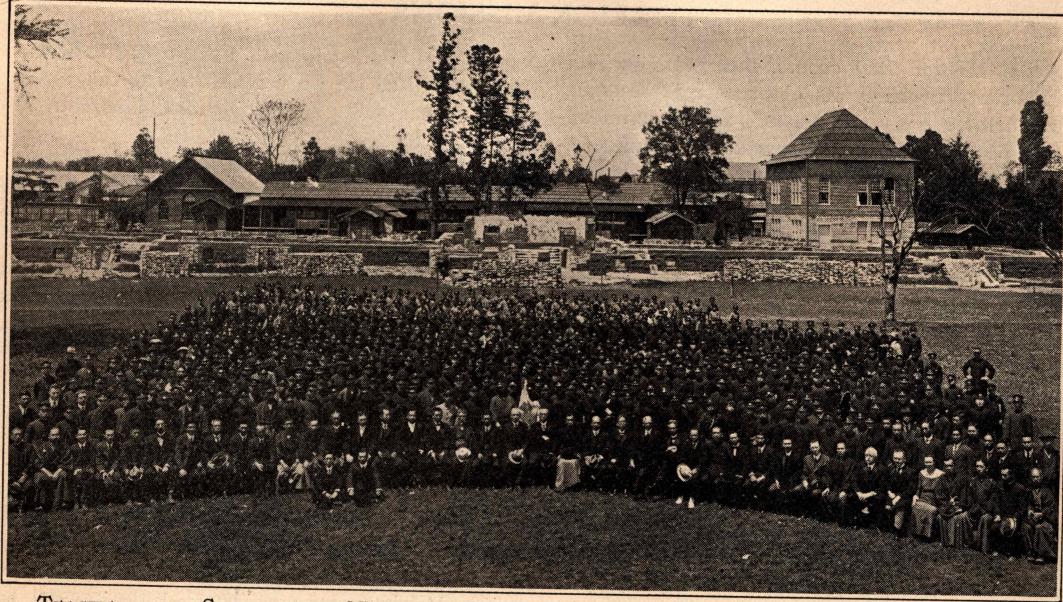

Huping College, at Yochow City, China, is fast becoming a potent factor in the Christian Education Movement in China. Four students graduated from the college and thirteen from the academy. At the end of the year there were 136 in attendance.

One Christian physician among a million heathen people is rather a startling statement, but this is true in many provinces in China. It is true in our own China Mission where we have at the present time only one physician, Dr. William F. Adams. In this need there is an appeal to the young, capable physicians in our Church.

There is no higher or holier calling than that of a foreign missionary. Only persons of rare ability should be sent to the Orient. All others will prove but misfits. Unless the missionary is far above the average in character, intelligence and devotion, he can accomplish little for the kingdom of God. The Lord chose Saul and Barnabas, two of the strongest Ruins in background have been cleared away since, and the New Middle School Building, to cost $110,000, is gradually rising on this site. The Dormitory, which was also destroyed by fire in March, 1919, has been completed at a cost of $20,000. Additional gifts for these buildings are needed.

Christians in the early Church, as foreign missionaries.

In the survey of needs of our Japan and China Missions, which has been given wide publicity by our Forward Movement, the members of the Church have a wonderful insight into the workings of our missionaries, the needs of our fields and the urgency of supplying them NOW. There is a challenge in all this to give up the smaller standards of believing, praying, working and giving. Our hard-worked missionaries are looking to the Church for the help which they need, and they are praying that we do not fail them at a time of unusual opportunities.

Foreign Missions, to-day, occupy a central place in the thought and life of men in all the walks of life. We have come to see that this is the primary work of the Christian Church and the object for which the Church exists. No class of men and women occupy a greater position of influence in the world than the ambassadors of Christ at the ends of the earth.

How can you help? Two thousand dollars will build one of the 50 chapels in our Japan and China Missions for the use of the Christians who must worship in unsuitable places. Fifty dollars will support a boy or girl for a year in one of our schools in Japan or China. The cost of a station, including salary of native pastor and woman evangelist, is $750. Four hundred dollars will pay the salary of a native pastor. Two hundred dollars will provide for a woman evangelist. Fifty dollars will maintain a bed in one of our hospitals. All information regarding the support of special objects will be given upon writing to the Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions.

The budget of expenses of the Board of Foreign Missions for the year 1921 will exceed $400,000. It is reasonable to expect at least $200,000 from apportionment, but it will be necessary to receive at least $200,000 in specials and from the Forward Movement. Bequests, annuities and other special gifts are always received with thanks.

PUBLICATION AND SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Some Leading Sunday School Events of the Past Year

The Sunday school enrollment all over the Church seems to have recovered from the recent slump.

Hand in hand with the increased enrollment, a higher percentage of attendance and general interest in the work is noted.

Teacher Training classes have increased in number considerably and those using the New Standard Course is steadily on the increase.

Three professors in our Theological Seminaries last year taught Teacher Training classes in local churches.

Two Mission Sunday schools were started in South West Synod and other fields are under consideration. This is one of the major products of the work of the Director of Religious Education of South West and Interior Synods, Rev. W. H. Knierim. Two a year annually in each Synod of the church in ten years and we would have a different story to tell in the Reformed Church as to membership.

Free grants of literature were given in increasing numbers to missions and weak Sunday schools which could not otherwise have existed.

Together with the Board of Home Missions the Publication and Sunday School Board is supporting Daily Vacation Bible Schools among Hungarian, Italian, German and English speaking schools.

A special feature of last year's work was the help given schools in planning new Sunday school buildings or remodeling old ones. Thousands of dollars have been saved churches in this way and many regrets.

More Sunday school workers than in any past year have called upon the Board for help in the solution of their educational problems. The personal interviews have been more numerous and the correspondence has greatly increased in number and the nature of inquiries show that the work is moving on higher levels.

Week Day Religious Education inquiries were numerous and in many instances our pastors stand in places of leadership in the community efforts along this line.

Community training schools are increasing and the reports indicate that our schools are not only taking advantage of these opportunities, but are also furnishing much of the leadership.

The Calendared Program representing the Sunday School Forward Movement plans, have met with wide acceptance and approval.

The Young People's Department has rendered a signal service during the past year. In addition to stimulating existing societies and organizing new ones, it has set the church thinking seriously about the entire complex and ramifying problem of the Young People of the church.

During the past year Trinity Sunday school, Canton, O., Rev. H. N. Kerst, pastor, by a systematic campaign in which every class shared, paid off the balance of the Church debt amounting to $17,454.00.

Dr. Charles Peters

The Publication and Sunday School Board has recently called Dr. Charles Peters, pastor of St. Paul's Church, Buffalo, N. Y., to become the Director of Religious Education for the Eastern Synods and to supervise Week Day Religious Education for the entire denomination. The Church extends a welcome to Dr. Peters and feels confident that the rare talents of heart and mind with which God has endowed him give promise of a splendid service to the Church in this important and urgent field.

In March 1919, a class of twenty-two officers, teachers and scholars of St. Peter's Reformed Church School, Rev. R. J. Pilgram, pastor, began the study of the New Standard Teacher Training Course under the tuition of Dr. T. F. Herman, instructor in religious education in the Theological Seminary at Lancaster, Pa. It completed Part I in June, taking an examination upon it. As a result of this beginning in Teacher Training, in the plan of coördination arranged between the Seminary authorities and the Church School, one of the points of contact established was that "a special course on Sunday School Teacher Training be offered, open to Church School members as well as Seminary students, and to be conducted by a member of the Faculty at weekly meetings at a time and place to be determined upon."

This plan has made Teacher Training a regular course for the members of the Junior Class and of the Church School, the former covering Parts

I and II on "The Child" and "The Teacher," the latter going through the book. Parts III and IV are covered for the Seminary students by later studies in their curriculum.

Dr. T. F. Herman has continued to give this instruction with thoroughness and inspiration. During the winter of 1920-21, the late and highly esteemed, Dr. W. C. Schaeffer taught Part III, "The Life of Christ" to teachers of the Church School. The developing interest in this work prompted the opening of this course to teachers of other Reformed Church Schools in the city, and several took advantage of the opportunity.

Class No. 1, taught by Dr. Herman, enrolled twenty-five members; Class No. 2, taught by Dr. Schaeffer had sixteen members. It is hoped that this Teacher Training Course may appeal to a larger number of teachers from other churches during the coming year, becoming a kind of community school for Teacher Training.

Dr. Wm. C. Schaeffer

The beloved teacher of one of these classes was called to his eternal reward on the day set originally for taking the photograph of these classes.

D. V. B. S. OF ST. PAUL'S REFORMED CHURCH, ALLENSTOWN, PA., REV. E. ELMER SENENIG, PASTOR

The Home, the Problem of Problems

In this day of awakening of the importance of the home and the danger of past neglect, parents will do well to familiarize themselves with some of the best things that have been said recently about Home Training. One of the more, recent helpful books on the subject is "The Christian Home" by Dr. W. Faris. It is a small, meaty book filled with great wisdom and inspiration. Here are a few extracts taken from it that are timely:

* * *

"Have this mind in you which was also in Christ Jesus"—or your home can not develop as it was meant to do. "Christ in the home means first of all filling the hearts of parents."

* * *

"Every child is a new problem. In home life every hour presents new problems. Rules will not cover the need. God inspires parental ingenuity to meet puzzling emergencies; he loves to do this. The honest, loving, unselfish, praying father is never left in the lurch. Raising children is a joint task of God and the earthly parents, and when called on God sees us through."

* * *

"The Christian home is not what it once was." Why should it be? How could it be? Nothing mundane is the same as it used to be. Conditions change. Would you have it otherwise? Do you resent growth and development? God's plans unfold through ages. Would you go back to candle-light and ox teams? The best home life of a hundred years ago would be intolerable to-day, not to say impossible. The necessary changes are wholesome. But they do involve perplexities.

* * *

And so this remarkable little book runs along like a fructifying stream in a rich meadow. Fathers and mothers who take the problem of their Divinely entrusted children and the home seriously, will be richly repaid by making such a book the basis of their study of the home, and will find it helpful in family worship. Save the home and we save our children, the church and the state and the world.

Week Day Religious Education

Necessity looking to national unity drove religious education from the public schools. The necessity of preserving the national life, and making it truly Christian, has again driven religious education back into the week day period; but now under Church auspices.

With the coming of more religious education the Church and the State enter upon a new era of progress. In more than 100 communities in the United States week day schools of religion are now being conducted. The Reformed Church because of its historic emphasis on religious education should be a leader in this field. Dr. Charles Peters has been entrusted with this task by the Reformed Church through its Publication and Sunday School Board.

THE YOUNG PEOPLE'S DEPARTMENT

"Help me to choose, O Lord, while I am young, Something to keep before me as a goal."

The Young People's Department exists to help our young people find the answer to that prayer—to show them that life's highest goal is the service of Jesus Christ, and to help them, through the local Young People's Societies, to train for that service.

In the Department's first year of work pastors from North Carolina to Oregon have been assisted in organizing new Young People's Societies, and in reviving old ones to make them vital factors in the work of the local Church.

Questions about devotional programs, missionary material, Church programs of recreation, and every phase of young people's work have been answered by correspondence, through the Young People's page of "The Way," articles in the Church papers, classes at a score of Summer Conferences and Winter Institutes, and personal visits to the local Churches. As a result of the Young People's Service at one Summer Conference, eight young people decided to give their lives to definite Christian service.

Young People's Day was widely celebrated in October, 1920, and the special service, "The Harvest Gift," presented in many Churches. "At the Cross-Roads," the Young People's Day Service for 1921, proved even more attractive and inspiring.

The Secretary has kept our young people in touch with large interdenominational activities, having a place of leadership at the World's Christian Endeavor Convention, at which our young people were very much in evidence.

MISS CATHERINE A. MILLER
Secretary Young People's Department

That the young people themselves appreciate the Department is shown by their hearty coöperation in all plans published—especially in following the Young People's Society Standard Program—and in their Young People's Day offering. It is the hope of the Secretary that the Department will soon be entirely supported by the young people themselves.

THE REFORMED CHURCH FAMILY

Through all its long and honorable history the Reformed Church has taught the importance of Christian nurture and emphasized the unsurpassed opportunity and obligation of parents in the home. It is the home that may properly be called the first church and the first school for the childhood of the world. There can be no satisfactory substitute for a good home. What sort of a home are you providing for your children? Is it a place where Christ is honored and exalted, and where all are taught by precept and example to love and obey Him? Does your home foster loyalty to the Church of God and stimulate service to mankind? If not, it is failing in its divine purpose.

The Reformed Church family should place "the child in the midst," as Jesus did, and center its plans and purposes on the holy task of building sturdy Christian character and training immortal souls for time and eternity. In the homes of our people the Bible should be loved, studied and taught. The Catechism, the Hymnal, the weekly Church paper, the "Outlook of Missions," and the ALMANAC AND YEAR Book should be familiar friends with which the children grow up, and to which they become ever more attached. Thus they will become earnest and intelligent members of the Kingdom of God, and be prepared in due time to establish true Christian homes of their own. The family altar, the right use of religious literature, and regular attendance at public worship, are the best means of sanctifying home life, making it a blessing to those within as well as those without who are influenced by the spirit of your home.

BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF

We have just completed the sixteenth year's work of the Board of Ministerial Relief, and the first year of the united work of the Board and the Society of Relief. It has been our best year. We have cared for 127 aged and disabled ministers and widows. We have helped them according to their need and the funds at our disposal in sums ranging from $50 to $400 per year. If we desire young men to enter the ministry we must take better care of those who are now in the ministry. We trust that this year every pastor of a charge will present the subject of relief to his people and either pay his apportionment or take an offering for this work. It is the first and most urgent claim on our people.

We have heard of a dog that carried food to a dog that was disabled in the forest. And we have also heard of a preacher who would not take an offering or crook a finger to help an aged minister in great need.

Sustentation

Our sustentation department has now enrolled over 20 per cent. of our ministers. We are raising $1,000,000 in the Forward Movement to make it possible to give each minister an income of $500 per year when he reaches the age of 70 years or to give his widow $300 per year. Relief is intended to help those in great need; Sustentation is to prevent need. All but two Classes in the Eastern Synod are now enrolling their ministers in this department. Where the Classis has not enrolled the minister, the charge he serves should do so.

OUR ORPHANS' HOMES

SOME OF THE LITTLE ONES, BETHANY

BETHANY ORPHANS' HOME

Rev. W. F. More, D.D., Supt.

Here are some of the little ones at Bethany; calves, kittens, ducks and children, happy together and enjoying each other.

But all are for the children, to amuse them now and later protect and nourish them. And the children are worth while. It is not the Heavenly Father's will that one of these little ones should perish. Neither is it your will and mine. So we will continue to help each other to give them, in abundance, all things needful and also some innocent pleasures to help them forget the irreparable loss of the natural mother's tender loving care.

HOFFMAN ORPHANAGE

Rev. A. H. Smith, Supt.

The great anticipations that kept us buoyant the past year brought forth a vast amount of energy that was spent on our surroundings. Although the progress made on the new buildings by delays innumerable was slow, we nevertheless spent many weary days in grading our beautiful oval.

First the playground paraphernalia was dug out of its concrete foundations to give us a chance to get down to grade, then the boys with a heavy plow and scoops began the moving of thousands of cubic yards of stones and soil, grading around the new buildings and prepared for the cement walks, which at this writing are being laid by the contractor.

Notwithstanding the strenuous hours on the farm and oval, our children are all very apt in vocal and instrumental music. Six boys, whose pictures are herewith presented, play skillfully with the instrument in their hands. The boy without an instrument is the accompanist. Some of them also play in St. James Reformed Church and Sunday School where the Rev. Ralph Weiler is their popular pastor. One of our thirteen-year-old girls is also assistant organist in this Church and Sunday School. It is a pleasure to hear them sing and play.

Before these lines appear in print we expect to admit many more children to the Home. This is made possible by the completion of Emmanuel Cottage for girls, Zion Cottage for young boys and girls, and the School House built by Maryland Classis.

The next building project will be the repairing and remodelling of Barkley Cottage and the erection of a central heating plant, the building of which is the project of Gettysburg Classis and the mechanical part such as boilers, conduits and fittings will be taken care of by Carlisle, Mercersburg, Juniata and Virginia Classes.

The new buildings, two cottages and the schoolhouse were dedicated on August 25, 1921, at the time of our Eleventh Anniversary.

The completion of these additional buildings will give us accommodations for the many dependent orphans in Potomac Synod. We realize that our aim and purpose is to assist these boys and girls to lay foundations for pure and noble characters for happy lives of Christian service.

MUSICIANS, HOFFMAN

PART OF THE FAMILY, ST. PAUL'S

ST. PAUL'S ORPHANS' HOME

Rev. A. M. Keifer, Supt.

The week beginning June 19, 1921, was a notable time in the history of St. Paul's Orphans' Home. The annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the Commencement exercises, and the entertainment of many good friends filled the work with many pleasures, and gave the Church a fuller conception of the fine Christian work being done by this splendid institution of the Church. The enlargement made during the previous year and the increased support given by the Church made it possible to care for more than a hundred children and to meet their needs better than in other years.

The Board of Directors ordered the extension of the school curriculum by the addition of a Kindergarten and one year of Junior High School work; the putting up of another school room, and the enlargement of the Girls' Cottage as soon as conditions will permit. This will, of course, mean a still larger work during 1922 and an additional challenge to the Church. For further information and envelopes for the Christmas offering address

Rev. A. M. Keifer, Supt., Greenville, Pa., to whom all contributions should be sent.

NAZARETH ORPHANS' HOME

CRESCENT, N. C.

Rev. W. B. Werner, Superintendent.

The great purpose of an orphanage is to support the fatherless children. Maintenance of life is, however, not the whole of this great work. There are certain conditions necessary so that the young life may develop into a person of usefulness in the community and the state. Our orphanages need, therefore, to be provided with equipment designed to bring about the full, round development of all the powers of the child. This harmonious development of the child's powers is one of the primary objects of education.

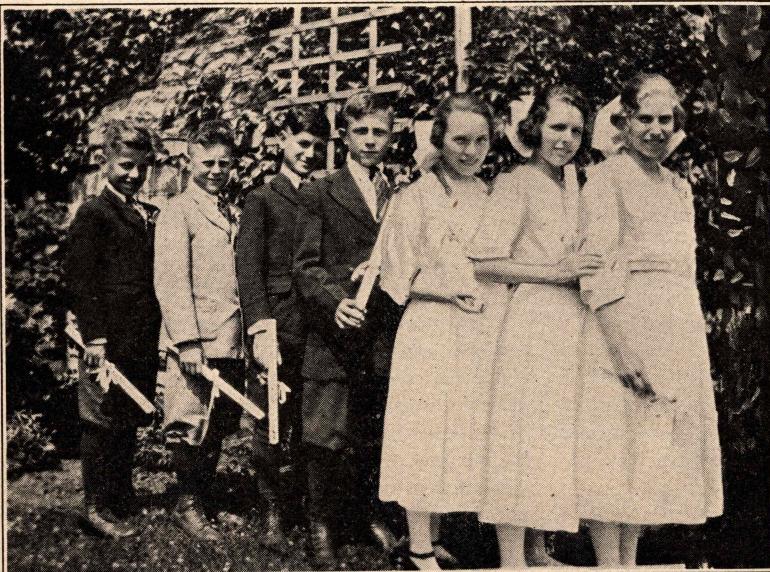

Here at Nazareth we lack a good many of the equipments indispensable to the accomplishment of this work. With the aid of these conveniences, the instilling of Christian principles is greatly facilitated. To lay the foundation of sound character, and to create correct ideals in the hearts of these girls and boys are after all the chief aim in this work.

THE SWINGS, NAZARETH

FORT WAYNE ORPHANS' HOME

Rev. John F. Winter, Supt.

THE 1921 GRADUATES, FT. WAYNE

This year 122 children were cared for. On July 1, 65 boys and 44 girls were in the Home. The health of the family was excellent; the needs of the little ones are supplied by kind friends; two splendid teachers had charge of the schools; good literature was supplied abundantly; and spiritual nurture received diligent attention. A nursery is greatly needed. The prayers and gifts of all who love the Lord and His little ones are asked for this work of helpfulness.

PHOEBE DEACONESS AND OLD FOLKS' HOME.

ALLENSTOWN, PA.

Rev. F. H. Moyer, Supt.

The Deaconess Training School aims to prepare women for service in the Church. It offers a three year course of study, designed to meet the needs of the Church of to-day.

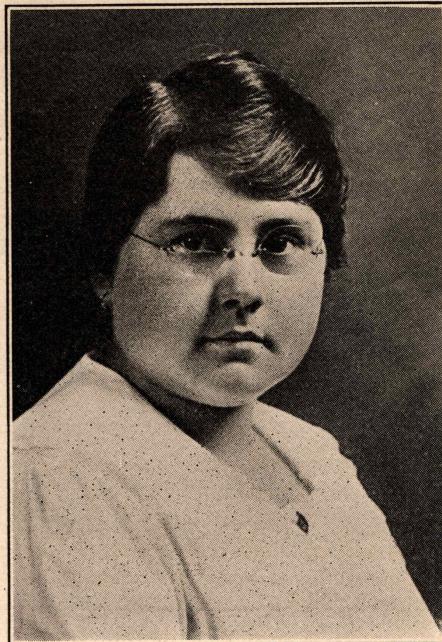

The curriculum, the religious atmosphere of the Home, weekly work in our Old Folks' Department and in the local churches, and close touch with the deaconesses in the service are essential factors in the work of the school.

The Reformed Church requires huge sums of money, but no less many additional workers. Deaconesses are needed in certain of our Home Mission stations; and our established congregations are calling for them to assist pastors in parish work.

This need constitutes a challenge to the most devoted and competent women of our Church to enter this service.

In many congregations are women spiritually, mentally and temperamentally fitted for this calling. Properly prepared, they will render the Church valuable services. We invite pastors to assist in enrolling students.

For detailed information, address the Superintendent.

THE HOME FOR THE AGED

UPPER SANDUSKY, O.

Rev. B. Ruf, Superintendent.

The present Home for the Aged at Upper Sandusky, O., is under the care of Central Synod, Ohio Synod, the Synod of the Southwest and the Synod of the Northwest. These Synods request you to live and give for the support and progress of the Home, so that those who come after you shall remember you and love you.

The plans for the Home, as they are being drawn up by the architects, will require an expenditure of $150,000 for their materialization. Therefore an appeal for funds to work out this splendid spirit of helpfulness. The Board of Trustees thanks all who have given for their kindness and co-operation. Without the assistance which has been received the Board could have accomplished little.

The officers of the Board of Trustees are Rev. Karl A. Stein, president, of Toledo, O.; Dr. F. G. Stueber, vice president, of Lima, O.; and Troy A. L. Dahn, secretary-treasurer, of Toledo, O. Rev.

B. Ruf, Upper Sandusky, O., is superintendent of the Home, to whom all remittances and gifts should be sent. When visiting in the vicinity of the Home, call at the Home, as you will be royally welcomed.

TROY A. L. DAHN, Sec'y-Treas.

THE SCHOOLS OF OUR CHURCH

We are justly proud of our Theological Seminaries, Colleges and Academies. They deserve the generous support of our Reformed Church people. Year after year the consecrated men and women in the faculties of these institutions of learning are rendering a notable ministry. Let us remember this work of Christian education in our prayers and gifts. The Church can not flourish unless these institutions are kept vigorous and given an equipment which will enable them to maintain the best modern standards in the educational world.

SCHOOL FOR CHRISTIAN WORKERS OF THE PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED CHURCHES.

Rev. Walter H. Waygood, Supt.

Philadelphia, Pa.

The Idea of the School. A few years ago the need of young women trained for Christian work was felt by a group of earnest men and women in Philadelphia. As a result the Philadelphia School for Christian Workers of the Presbyterian and Reformed Churches was chartered by the State of Pennsylvania. Since then it has graduated more than 100. All graduates have been placed in positions of usefulness with good salaries.

The Training. Specialists in various departments give training in Bible Study, Doctrine and Church Government, Home and Foreign Missions and Social Service. Kindergarten, Gymnasium, Cooking, Sewing, Nursing and First Aid are also included. Instruction is given in Vocal Music, Typewriting, and Card-indexing. In addition to this, afternoons are devoted to practical work in the various churches, missions and social centers in Philadelphia.

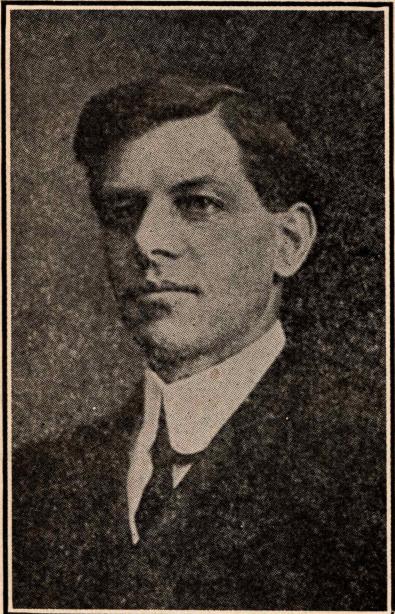

The Field. This is indicated by the positions held by the graduates of this School. They are located in China, India, Korea, Syria and Japan and in many states of our own country, while groups are working in Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, and other neighboring cities. Young women of consecration and proper training are in great demand.

What You Can Do. Our plant represents a value of $120,000. We need money for maintenance including overhead expenses, scholarships and extension for a larger work. It costs $600 a year to board and instruct each student. A student is asked to pay only $400 a year. Some cannot afford even this but have qualities for service which no money could provide. We will furnish a scholarship in such cases. We need your prayers and co-operation in this work. Appoint a representative woman from each Church to serve on the Church Representation Committee and thus become a link between the Church and the School.

WHAT DO YOU READ?

In every good home in the Reformed Church there should be found copies of the Bible, the Hymnal, the Catechism, the Year Book, the weekly Church paper, the Outlook of Missions, and other publications of our denomination which will help all the members of the family to become acquainted with the work of the Church of God. It is a great service to mankind to rear a generation of young people who are interested in the things of God through the reading of religious literature. Never in the history of our country was it more important to stimulate this interest in our youth. The Church paper has proved itself a blessing in so many thousands of homes that its use needs to be urged only upon those who have not yet experienced this important truth.

The Almanac and Year Book is published jointly by the Publication and Sunday School Board of General Synod, and the Central Publishing House. The former publishes, also, our oldest church paper, The Reformed Church Messenger, which is the official organ of the Eastern, Pittsburgh, and Potomac Synods; the latter publishes The Christian World, which is the official organ of the Ohio Synod.

REV. RUFUS C. ZARTMAN, D.D.,
Synodical Evangelist, Eastern Synod

The Reformed Church Messenger is edited by the Rev. Dr. Paul S. Leinbach, editor-in-chief; the Rev. A. S. Bromer, associate editor; and the Rev. Dr. C. J. Musser, editor emeritus. The Christian World is edited by the Rev. Dr. H. S. Gekeler. One or both of these papers should be welcomed in every home of the Church. Beginning with October 1, 1921, our Board also shares in the publication of the great monthly inter-denominational journal of religious education, The Church School. This should be in the hands especially of all Sunday School and Young People's workers. The theological journal of our denomination, The Reformed Church Review, is a quarterly of admittedly high standing and deserves the coöperation of all ministers and intelligent laymen in our Churches. It is now edited by the Rev. Profs. T. F. Herman, G. W. Richards, A. S. Zerbe, and A. E. Dahlman, representing all our Theological Seminaries. (The Messenger, weekly, is $2.50 per year; the World, weekly, $2.25; the Church School, monthly, $1.25; the Review, quarterly, $2; the Outlook of Missions, monthly, 50 cents.)

I AM THE CHURCH

I am the best friend of mankind. To the man who prizes sanity, peacefulness, pure-mindedness, social standing and longevity, I am a necessity.

I am hung about with sweet memories—memories of brides—memories of mothers—memories of boys and girls—memories of the aged as they grope their way down the shadows.

I am decked with loving tears—crowned by happy hands and hearts.

In the mind of the greatest men of earth, I find a constant dwelling place.

I live in the lives of the young and in the dreams of the old.

I safeguard man through all his paths—from the first hour life's sun slants upon his footprints until the purple gathers in the West and the darkness falls.

REV. WM. F. BARNY

REV. J. S. BARTHOLOMEW

REV. GEO. G. EVERHART

REV. MARION J. FIROR

REV. JOSHUA S. BARTHOLOMEW was born near Bath, Northampton County, Pa., March 22, 1863, and died in Bethlehem, Pa., February 23, 1921, aged 57 years, 11 months and 1 day. He pursued his studies at Ursinus College and graduated from the Ursinus School of Theology in 1900. He was licensed by Philadelphia Classis, and ordained to the ministry at Lenhartsville, Pa. He was pastor of the Lenhartsville Charge for 11 years and of the Schoenersville Charge for 10 years. He built new churches at Windsor Castle, Berks County, and at East Allentown, and a chapel at Virginsville, and remodelled the Dunkle's Church. He was married to Miss Mary J. Funk, August 5, 1883. He is survived by his widow, 3 sons and a daughter, also 3 brothers.

REV. WILLIAM F. BARNY, Milltown, N. J. (Biography not received).

REV. GEORGE G. EVERHART, Baltimore, Md., was born in Manchester, Carroll County, Md., January 31, 1831, the eldest of eight children of David and Nancy Everhart; found dead in bed Saturday morning, July 9, 1921, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Tobias Nixdorf, 1616 West Lanvale Street, Baltimore, aged 90 years, 6 months, and 8 days. The early death of his father caused him to undertake household responsibilities with great devotion for a number of years. He entered the dry goods business at the opening of the Civil War. He became Sunday school superintendent in the Third Church of Baltimore, and later became a devoted worker and teacher in the Sunday school of Faith Church. In 1889, when serving as an elder at the meeting of Maryland Classis, he offered himself on the altar of his Church as a candidate for the ministry. He was licensed and soon thereafter accepted a call to Shepherdstown, W. Va., where he was ordained and served for about 12 years. His second and last charge was Harrisonburg, Va., where he served about six years. During the remainder of his life he was active in supplying pulpits, in teaching the Adult Bible Class of Third Church, Baltimore, and in other useful ministries. He is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Nixdorf and Mrs. Charles Leber, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Conrad Clever, of Hagerstown. Interment in Greenmount Cemetery, Baltimore.

REV. MARION L. FIROR, Burkittsville, Md., was born in Creagerstown, Md., June 23, 1852, and died March 11, 1921, in the Frederick City Hospital. After graduating from Mercersburg Theological Seminary in 1878 he was called to St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, and in the eleven and a half years of his pastorate the roll of 55 members increased to over 400, with a Sunday school of over 500. His missionary zeal was also largely responsible for the forming of Trinity, Faith and Christ Churches in that city. His other pastorates were as follows: Sioux City, Ia., 1891; Union Bridge, Md., 1891-1894; Williamsport, Pa., 1894-1900; Scranton, Pa., 1900-1906. Since 1906 he served Trinity, Baltimore; and the Sabillasville Charge, consisting of St. Jacob's, St. John's and St. Stephen's Churches, in addition to a labor of love at the State Sanatorium for Tuberculosis. On October 6, 1919, he began his work in Burkittsville, and was very happy in that useful service until he was broken in health. Rev. Mr. Firor is survived by his widow, Anna Percival Achey, and the following children: Ruth Anita, Frederick Leonard, Whitmer Bennett and Marion Percival, who is one of our missionaries to China. Rev. and Mrs. Firor lost two sons in the War, Sergt. Paul Lincoln Firor and Carl Lawrence Firor. The impressive funeral services of this faithful pastor were held in Burkittsville, Md.

REV. HENRY M. GERSMANN was born in Osnabrueck, Germany, October 8, 1852; died in Buffalo, N. Y., July 31, 1921. He came to America in his youth, and felt an urgent call to enter the ministry, receiving preparatory training in the Mission House. On October 15, 1879, he was ordained by Sheboygan Classis and installed as pastor at Sturgis Bay, Wis., where he labored for two years and was happily married to Miss Laura D. Bossard, who has been a faithful companion throughout the 42 years of his ministry. After serving nine years in Louisville, Ky., and Jeffersonville, Ind., he was called to the First Church, Toledo, O., where he labored with success for 18 years. Missionary zeal urged him to undertake difficult work in Winnipeg, Can., but the rigors of the climate compelled him to give up after a year, and he accepted a call from Jerusalem Church, Buffalo, where a fine property was secured and a growing congregation established in a new location, in twelve years of patient labor. He was a member of the Board of Church Erection of the Synod of the Northwest, and later Central Synod made him a member of the Board of Home Missions. After services in Buffalo, in which all the local pastors participated, the remains were taken to Toledo, O., for interment in Woodlawn Cemetery. A memorial service was held in the First Church in charge of Rev. Karl Stein. Rev. Mr. Gersman is survived by his wife, two sons and one daughter.

After 1900 he served Beaver Creek Charge; Grace Church, Lancaster, O.; St. Luke's Church, Braddock, Pa.; East Market Street Mission, Akron, O. His first wife died in 1892, and he later married Miss Katherine Schatz. For 17 years he served the Ceylon Charge, and then the Tenth Church, in Cleveland. years, 9 months and 27 days. Rev. Frederick C. Nau, D.D., of Grace Church, Pittsburgh, is a son of the deceased. Interment was made in Galion, O.

REV. JOHN G. NOSS, was born in York County, Pa., December 24, 1838, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Emma Burkholder, New Holland, Pa., June 15, 1921, aged 82 years. After working on a farm in his youth he learned the saddle and harness-making trade in York. WHEN YOU HAVE MUSIC PROBLEMS, CONSULT US

The Music Department of our Board is a department of helpfulness—it was organized for this purpose—and hundreds of our Churches will testify to the fact that it has been of real assistance in many ways.

WE PUBLISH excellent material for use in all departments of Church activities and our publications are held in high esteem by ministers and other workers in all denominations. We feel our own publications will more than please you.

But in addition, we fill orders for everything published by others, and always at publishers' rates.

Founded at Carlisle, March, 1825

LANCASTER, PA.

This School of Theology, the oldest educational institution of the Reformed Church, is conducted under the direction of three English Synods: The Eastern Synod, the Pittsburgh Synod, and the Synod of the Potowmac.

Its financial affairs are managed by a Board of Trustees, consisting of eighteen laymen. Instruction and discipline are subject to the authority of a Board of Visitors, consisting of twelve ministers. The Visitors and Trustees are chosen from the ministers and laymen of the three Synods.

The Course of Instruction embraces three years and includes all the branches of a complete education for the Christian ministry.

A fine Dormitory and Refectory were recently added to the equipment, in which room and board may be had at reasonable rates.

Art Glass Windows

The Crowning Beauty of the Church

The whole aspect and interior of any religious edifice is largely contingent upon the character of its windows.

A SPLENDID TREATISE

has been prepared, giving not merely designs, but a comprehensive discussion of the Art from the remote past to the present day. It illustrates fragments of celebrated windows found in some of the old cathedrals of France and England, as well as modern Art Windows in which these designs, centuries old, have been used.

Those interested in beautiful churches should have a copy of "The Crowning Beauty of the Church." It is sent free. Merely mention this publication.

LE PAGE INDIVIDUAL COMMUNION CUPS
UNBREAKABLE POINTED TOP STYLE
2382 DUNDAS ST. W TORONTO CANADA

June 14, 1919.

Mr. H. T. LePage,
Toronto, Ont., Canada.

My Dear Mr. LePage: I take this occasion to write you about the style 16 cups, and indeed our whole Communion Set. After nearly a year's use we are more than ever pleased with it. I have visited several places where the flat top cup and Aluminum trays are in use, and have just wished that the kind we have could be substituted for them. Ours are just a joy to us, and I wish I could induce all to buy this kind. The glasses are much prettier and easier to handle and to drink from.

Yours cordially,
REV. BERNARD P. SMITH,

Our Bible Story Books

FOR HOME, SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CATECHETICAL CLASSES

Bible Stories, Book I.

ARRANGED IN 56 LESSONS ACCORDING TO THE CHURCH CALENDAR. Large 12mo. 209 pages. With illustrations.

Arrangement and plan of book: first, a short and clear statement of the Bible narrative, then a Golden Text, or central passage, followed by questions covering the lesson. In this way such Old Testament questions as the following are taken up: The creation, fall, deluge, tower of Babel, Abraham, Joseph, Moses, Canaan, David, the Kingdoms of Israel and Judah, the Babylonian captivity and the return; the annunciation and birth of Jesus, public ministry of our Lord, suffering and death of Christ, Pentecost, spreading of the gospel by the apostles and many others.

This book is so complete and excellent in the field covered that we would wish it might be used in all Bible Schools in the Reformed Church, in order to ground our young people thoroughly in a solid basis of Bible knowledge. It is a lamentable fact that with all the pretense of the study of literature these days in our schools and colleges, the Bible is about the least thoroughly known of all the classics.
